Myanmar in Style

This perfectly balanced journey takes in some of Myanmar's highlights before giving you a few days to relax on the beautiful Ngapali Beach.

Yangon's Scott market, circular train, colonial architecture and the shining gold pagodas of Shwedagon await. Take an early morning balloon-flight over Bagan with its 3000 ancient temples scattered across the fertile plains. Journey down the Irrawaddy to rustic Salay. Stay in a stilt hotel on Inle Lake to explore the floating gardens by boat and take a walk to the five-day market, where the Shan, Inda, Pa'O & Taung Yoo bring their crops to sell. Cycle to a winery, take a cooking class in a traditional house, or even try a little one-legged rowing. Finally fly to Thandwe for a few days relaxation on the beach.

Then take to the air for dramatic views over the unique and enchanting 11th century ruins as the sun rises from behind distant mountains.            After breakfast, start your tour of some of Bagan's beautiful temples on the ground by pony and trap. Escape the heat of the day in the tranquil temples and wonder at the intricate architecture of Ananda Temple.	Hotel at Tharabar Gate (B)	Tour the pagodas by horse & cart, & on foot

Irrawaddy river voyage to Salay

After breakfast board a small private boat and cruise down the Irrawaddy river to Salay. Enjoy the scenery from the open-topped deck and relax as you chug downstream. After a couple of hours and a delicious lunch on the boat, you will arrive in the historic town of Salay. This 12th century village is an active religious centre with many wooden monasteries and British colonial buildings. Walk through the sleepy town dotted with rustic temples often missed by tourists. At 130 years old Yokesone Kyaung is the oldest surviving teak monastery, built on 154 teak posts with beautiful carvings decorating the exterior walls. Visit the monastery before heading back to Bagan by vehicle.
